Qigong: Iron Shirt
Flex the Spine / Relax Within

This old Qigong discipline strengthens the body and creates a protecting "iron shirt". Originally it was used to keep away inner and outer injuries. Nowadays we use this exercise to improve our immune system. It corrects bad body posture and dissolves unfavourable habits in movements. These postures strengthen the tendons and bones, and create an inner "Qi pressure" in the lower abdomen.

Wednesdays 6.20-7.20pm

You start a Qigong class any time.
